

Mrs. Flowers Theatre

Poetry and Our Five Senses
1st-2nd grade

Objective

Students will be able to review, demonstrate and create a poem using their five senses, by following the Spring Time theme.

Let's Review

What are your five senses? Can you name all Five?

Follow the link below, listen carefully and play along with the five senses game.

Come back once you're done to complete your poem.

The Five Senses

Our Senses Song

(sung to the tune of 'Bingo')

We use 5 senses every day

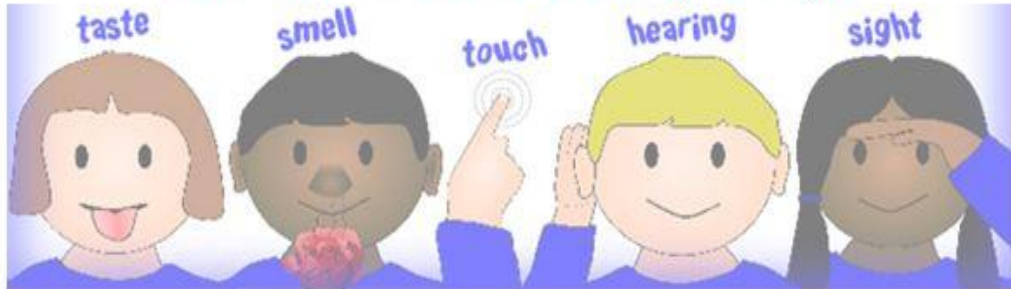

To help us learn and play

See, hear, smell, touch, taste

See, hear, smell, touch, taste

See, hear, smell, touch, taste

We do these every day.

Click Link Below

Our Senses Song with Mrs. Flowers

Now it's time to create!!

Take a blank piece of paper, flashcards or poster with different colored crayons, colored pencils, or markers to create your spring poem following this template.

name _____

In Spring...

I see _____

I hear _____

I touch _____

I smell _____

I taste _____

I Love Spring!

Creative Encouragement!

Sit by a window and create your poem.

Sit outside and create your poem.

Take a nature walk, with a parent or guardian and create your poem.

Send a picture of yourself with your poem.

Share your work!!

E-mail: Monique.Flowers@k12.dc.gov

Send in a video or audio clip of you performing your poem.

